

Join us for a Site Tour to learn more about the Proposed Frederick Allen Park Riparian Corridor

The Marin County Flood Control District and the Town of Ross invites all interested community members to a discussion and site walk of the proposed Frederick Allen Park conceptual plan Saturday, November 18, 2017. The goal of the meeting is to hear and address your questions and concerns, and discuss next steps. This is one of the proposed features of the larger Corte Madera Creek Flood Risk Management Project.

ALLEN PARK DISCUSSION & SITE WALK DETAILS:

Saturday, November 18, 2017

10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Join us anytime during the scheduled time at Ross Post Office for an overview, then we'll take small groups down the path to Frederick Allen Park
